

OUR STORY

Guardian Peak is named after the towering peak on Stellenbosch Mountain, in a region where wine forms part of daily life. At Guardian Peak we strive to share our love of wine, food, and winelands culture. Our philosophy to Live with Wine carries through from our winemaking into our restaurant and beyond our premises to your kitchen, living room, and braai area, where you can enjoy our wines with food and friends on any occasion.

Jean Engelbrecht created this range of wines in 1998 with the aim to produce quality wines at affordable prices so that more people can enjoy the culture of living with wine. The wines are crafted to capture the bright, fruity flavours of our Cape Winelands terroir, which make our wines easy to understand and enjoyable from a young age.

Guardian Peak wines are also crafted with food in mind. Their bright fruit, balanced acidity, and approachable structure make them versatile companions at the table, enhancing flavours without overpowering them - making them the obvious choice to reach for on any dining occasion.
